- ½ Cup Peaches or Strawberries
- 1 Tbs Chia Seeds (Bloomed)*

You may bloom chia seeds the night before, leaving them in the refrigerator, and they will be ready in the morning. Bloomed seeds last 4-5 days in the refrigerator

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Spray a sauté pan with Coconut oil. Cook scallions on low heat until softened.
2. In the same pan, add chard and arugula until they begin to breakdown. Add a few tablespoons of broth or water to help soften the vegetables.
3. Cover, set aside and keep warm. Fill a small saucepan with chicken broth. You want the broth to fill the saucepan at least half full.
4. Add the small bite-size chicken pieces and gently simmer for a few minutes until the chicken is soft and done.
5. Lightly whisk your egg whites with a fork so that no bubbles form. This takes about 4 or 5 turns of the wrist. The secret to the egg threads is to turn the simmering chicken broth off and begin pouring in the egg whites in a slow stream about 6 or 7 inches above the broth while at the same time stirring rapidly in one direction.
6. Begin stirring the minute you start pouring and continue to stir for 1 minute after all the whites are incorporated into the broth. Serve the broth with the warm vegetables and carrot ribbons for garnish.

3. Lightly spray the inside of the heart with coconut oil spray. Place the fish fillet on one side of the heart and give the fillet a quick spray as well.
4. Top the fish with the 2 tomato slices and sprinkle with leeks and capers. Season with Herbamare and pepper and a light squeeze of lemon juice.
5. Fold the paper over the fish so that the edges meet. Start at one end of the heart and roll the edges together by folding and pinching creating a closed and sealed packet.
6. Place the packet on a baking sheet and bake for about 12-14 minutes until the paper is puffed and browned.
7. Serve at once on individual plates, still wrapped in the parchment packet. Open from the center of the packages carefully, as steam will escape, and eat directly out of the pouch. Serve chard and summer squash on the side.
8. Place the packet on a baking sheet and bake for about 12-14 minutes until the paper is puffed and browned.
9. Serve at once on individual plates, still wrapped in the parchment packet. Open from the center of the packages carefully, as steam will escape and eat directly out of the pouch. Serve chard and summer squash on the side.

- Salsita Tomate (ingredients below)
- 1 Tablespoon Cilantro

3. In a quality non-stick pan on medium heat, sauté with a quick spray of coconut oil the green peppers and onions until slightly softened.

7. With the nopales and the salsita tomate finished, scramble the whole egg and egg whites together until soft. Fold in the cooked nopales and stuff into the two roasted chiles. ORANGE SHRIMP CEVICHE WITH TOASTED GARBONZOS

INGREDIENTS

3-4 oz. Shrimp
1/3 Cup Roasted Onion
1/3 Cup Roasted Yellow Bell Pepper
1/2 Cup Roasted Tomato
1 Small Jalapeño Chopped
1/2 Cup Lime Juice
1/4 Cup Orange Juice
4 Slices Red Onion
2 Teaspoon Scallions
1 Teaspoon Chives
1 Tablespoon Cilantro
1/8 Cup Tomato Juice
Tabasco to Taste
Salt to Taste
1 1/2 Cups Soft Lettuce
1 Teaspoon Walnut Oil
1/4 Cup Toasted Garbanzo Beans (recipe below)

TOASTED GARBANZO BEANS

1 Can Garbanzo Beans
Calories: 64 per 1/4 cup
1 1/2 Teaspoons Garlic powder
Fat Calories: less than 8
1 1/2 Teaspoons Onion Powder
1/4 Teaspoon White pepper
1 1/2 Teaspoons Turmeric
1/2 Teaspoon Salt
1 Teaspoon Chili Powder

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Roast in your oven (350F) the allotted amounts of onion, tomato and yellow bell pepper (cut in quarters) until soft and caramelized.
2. Blanch the shrimp in boiling water for about 30 seconds then put in an ice water bath and drain. Combine the roasted vegetables in a blender with the fresh chopped jalapeno and blend until smooth.
3. In a large mixing bowl, combine the shrimp, blended vegetables, all the remaining vegetables (except lettuce), and juices. Season with salt and Tabasco to taste. Marinate this mixture for 2 hours.
4. Serve on soft lettuce that has been gently massaged with the walnut oil and toasted garbanzos on the side.
5. Rinse, drain and dry the garbanzo beans. Mix the spices and put on a plate.
6. Roll the beans in the mixture to absorb most of the spices. Put the beans on a baking sheet and cook at 350F for 45 minutes to 1 hour. Watch them toward the end of baking.
7. They crisp even further after they have cooled off. The U.S. brands have more water content in the bean and generally take the hour to crisp where the Mexican brands are a little drier and crisp faster.
8. Follow the amounts of the spice blend exactly because if you add more chili powder, it will burn. The flavors also concentrate as they cook, so extra salt will result in too much salt.
9. These are about 64 calories per each 1/4 cup and less than 8 calories from fat. Because they are dried, they make a great snack with popular Mexican flavors when sprinkled with fresh lime and hot sauce and chili powders.

PRIMO
GUACAMOLE
WITH TOASTED
JICAMA CHIPS

INGREDIENTS

- 2.6 oz. Avocados* (about 1/3 cup chopped small)
Choose a smooth skin avocado for less fat and less calories.
- 1 1/2 Tablespoons Red Onion
chopped fine
- 1/3 Cup White Cabbage
shredded
- 1/4 Cup Roma Tomatoes
chopped small
- 1-2 Tablespoons Lime juice
- 1 Jalapeno pepper
chopped fine
- Sea Salt to taste
- 6-7 Toasted Jicama Chips
(recipe below)

TOASTED JICIMA CHIPS

- 12 - 14 Jicama Slices
(1/8-+ inch thick)
- 1 1/2 Teaspoons Onion Powder
- 1 1/2 Teaspoons Garlic powder
- 1/2 Teaspoon Salt
- 1 1/2 Teaspoons Turmeric
- 1 Teaspoon Chili powder

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Blend the avocado until pureed. Gently stir in the remaining ingredients and season to taste. Serve with jicama chips.
2. To make jicama chips: slice the jicama with a mandolin if you have one. If using a knife, try and get the slices as even and thin as possible.
3. I cut a 5 inch circle with my mandolin about 1/8 inch thick. This 5 inch circle reduces to about a 2 inch chip when baked. You can buy a very large jicama and cut it in half, if you are using a knife, and just cut large ovals. No thicker than 1/8 inch or just a smidge more because it will take the jicama too long to crisp.
4. Blend the powdered spices and place in a bowl. With the jicama slice in your hand, sprinkle 1/8 teaspoon of mixed spices on top of the jicama slice and massage the spice rub all over the jicama slice on both sides. If you put the jicama slice on top of all the spice rub in the bowl the moisture from the jicama will clump the powdered spice rub you have mixed, so it is best to keep the slice in your hands and rub the spices in.
5. Place the jicama slices very close together because they shrink on a baking sheet. Bake for 30 minutes at 350F then reduce heat to 225F to 250F. Turn the slices over and bake for one hour more or until crisp.
6. Total baking time will be about 1 hour and 30 minutes. Just watch them at the end of the baking time. When the chips come out of the oven they may be a little soft in the center, but they will crisp when cooled. These keep crispy in a Ziplock bag for days if they are dried out properly. If they become soft when in the bag, that means they were not baked long enough. All of the spices concentrate in flavor when baked so use the suggested amounts first and then adjust on your next batch if needed.

TILAPIA IN HOJA SANTA

DINNER

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Hoja Santa Leaves
- 5 oz. Tilapia Fish
- 1 Tablespoon Roasted Garlic
- 3 Tablespoons Roasted Onion
- 1 Jalapeno Pepper chopped
- ¼ Cup Salsa Verde (recipe below)

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Spray with coconut oil one garlic bulb with top cut off and one small white onion sliced into ½ inch thick circles. Place on a cookie sheet and roast at 350F for about 35 minutes or until soft.
2. If you are planning on using the semi-homemade Salsa Verde recipe below, now would be a perfect time to put the tomatillos on the cookie sheet and roast them as well.
3. Puree the roasted garlic and onion together in a mini processor. Remove 1 tablespoon of garlic puree and 3 tablespoons of onion puree, adding the chopped jalapeno pepper to make a paste.
4. Give a quick spray of coconut oil to both sides of the fish fillet and season with sea salt and pepper. Pat half of the onion/garlic/chili paste on one side of the fish and the other half on the other side.
5. Wrap the fillet in a Hoja Santa leaf to enclose the fish. In a saucepan with a steamer basket, line one Hoja Santa leaf in bottom of the steamer basket and then place the wrapped fish on top of the other leaf in the basket.
6. Steam the fish covered for about 12 to 13 minutes.
7. Ladle the salsa verde on a plate; remove the Hoja Santa leaf and place the fillet on top of the salsa. Sprinkle with the pumpkin seeds and serve with a side-dish of sautéed acelgas.
